Contents

VOLUME 8, NUMBER 1, APRIL 1993

The structure of a local population and dispersal pattern in the Styan's grasshopper warbler, Locustella pleskei
H. Nagata 1

Population dynamics of Japanese serow in relation to social organization and habitat conditions. I. Stability of Japanese serow density in stable habitat conditions
K. Ochiai, S. Nakama, S. Hanawa and T. Amagasa 11

Population dynamics of Japanese serow in relation to social organization and habitat conditions. II. Effects of clear-cutting and planted tree growth on Japanese serow populations
K. Ochiai, S. Nakama, S. Hanawa and T. Amagasa 19

Altitudinal variations in germination and growth responses of Reynoutria japonica populations on Mt Fuji to a controlled thermal environment
S. Mariko, H. Koizumi, J. Suzuki and A. Furukawa 27

Pine forest structure in a human-dominated landscape system in Korea
M. Kamada and N. Nakagoshi 35

Vegetation pattern and microtopography on a landslide scar of Mt Kiyosumi, central Japan
A. Sakai and M. Ohsawa 47

Botanical and chemical composition of rumen contents of Sika deer on Mt Goyo, northern Japan
S. Takatsuki and S. Ikeda 57

Examination of the method for measuring soil respiration in cultivated land: Effect of carbon dioxide concentration on soil respiration
T. Nakadai, H. Koizumi, Y. Usami, M. Satoh and T. Oikawa 65

Comparative ecophysiology of Larix kaempferi (Lamb.) Carr. and Abies veitchii Lindl. III. Analysis of factors determining the differences in root depth
H. Yura 73

Photosynthesis of bract and its contribution to seed maturity in Carpinus laxiflora
Y. Hori and H. Tsuge 81

Field measurements of nitrogen-fixing activity of intact saplings of Alnus maximowiczii in the subalpine zone of Mt Fuji
H. Tsutsumi, T. Nakatsubo and Y. Ino 85

Male–male competition and mating success in the orb-web spider, Nephila clavata, with reference to temporal factors
T. Miyashita 93

Short Communications

Fecundity and oviposition in three skimmers, Orthetrum japonicum, O. albistylum and O. triangulare (Odonata: Libellulidae)
T. Higashi and M. Watanabe 103

Germination of Rubus palmatus var. coptophyllus and R. microphyllus seeds buried in soil for 7.5 years
W. Suzuki 107

VOLUME 8, NUMBER 2, AUGUST 1993

Comparison of ecophysiological responses to heavy snow in two varieties of Aucuba japonica with different areas of distribution
A. Kume and Y. Ino 111

Biomass and net production in a bamboo Phyllostachys bambusoides stand
Y. Isagi, T. Kawahara and K. Kamo 123

Light environment and carbon gain of understory herbs associated with sunflecks in a warm temperate deciduous forest in Japan
H. Koizumi and Y. Oshima 135

Growth, morphology and leaf characteristics after simulated herbivory in Chinese subtropical evergreen saplings
J. H. C. Cornelissen 143

Pressurized gas transport in two Japanese alder species in relation to their natural habitats
W. Grosse, A. Schulte and H. Fujita 151

Photosynthetic activity and water relations of sprouts of Pasania edulis
S. Ito and K. Gyokusen 159

Difference of invasion behavior between two climax species, Castanopsis cuspidata var. sieboldii and Machilus thunbergii, on lava flows on Miyakejima, Japan
S. Hiroki and K. Ichino 167

Resource allocation to sexual and vegetative reproduction in a forest herb Syneilesis palmata (Compositae)
S. Nishitani and M. Kimura 173

Water intake by the adult mayfly Epeorus ikanonis (Ephemeroptera: Heptageniidae) and its effect on their longevity
Y. Takemon 185

Population dynamics, productivity and biomass allocation of Zizania latifolia in an aquatic–terrestrial ecotone
T. Tsuchiya, A. Shinozuka and I. Ikusima 193

Probable effects of CO_2-induced climatic changes on net primary productivity of terrestrial vegetation in East Asia
S. Ohta, Z. Uchijima and Y. Oshima 199

Recovery of a Sasa tsuboiana population after mass flowering and death
A. Makita, Y. Konno, N. Fujita, K. Takada and E. Hamabata 215

The effect of long wave ultraviolet radiation (UV-A) on the photosynthetic activity of natural population of freshwater phytoplankton
D. S. Kim and Y. Watanabe 225

Short Communications

Differences in sapling architecture between Fagus crenata and Fagus japonica
Y. Yamamura, A. Ishida and Y. Hori 235

Respiration for maintenance and growth in Reynoutria japonica ecotypes from different altitudes on Mt Fuji
S. Mariko and H. Koizumi 241

VOLUME 8, NUMBER 3, DECEMBER 1993

Insects and plants in the pollination ecology of the boreal zone
P. G. Kevan, E. A. Tikhmenev and M. Usui 247

Harvesting rate of the termite, Drepanotermes tamminensis (Hill), within native woodland and shrubland of the Western Australian wheatbelt
H. C. Park, J. D. Majer, R. J. Hobbs and T. U. Bae 269

Gap characteristics and gap regeneration in a subalpine coniferous forest on Mt Ontake, central Honshu, Japan
S-I. Yamamoto 277

Vegetative growth and productivity of Eichhornia azurea with special emphasis on leaf dynamics
I. Ikusima and J. G. Gentil 287

Spatial variation in composition and richness of fish communities in a southwestern Australian river system
M. J. Hutchison 297

Interception of photosynthetic photon flux density by woody elements in a hinoki (Chamaecyparis obtusa [Sieb. et. Zucc.] Endl.) stand
A. Hagihara and K. Yamaji 313

Temporal changes in food resources, parental feeding and breeding success of Heron Island silvereyes, Zosterops lateralis chlorocephala
K. Eguchi 319

Early herbaceous succession along a topographical gradient on forest clear–felling sites in mountainous terrain, central Japan
T. Ohtsuka, T. Sakura and M. Ohsawa 329

The effect of missing rings on stand-age estimation of even-aged forests in northern Hokkaido, Japan
S. Takaoka 341

Canopy photosynthetic production in a Japanese larch forest. II. Estimation of the canopy photosynthetic production
N. Kurachi, A. Hagihara and K. Hozumi 349
